

Dob Not Guilty In Fatal Fight With Brother

Joseph T. Dob was found not guilty of manslaughter charges yesterday at the end of his two-day trial for the fatal stabbing of his brother, Jerome Dob, Collegeville merchant seaman, during a quarrel the past May 10 in the kitchen of their parents' West Conshohocken home.

It took the all-women jury only 15 minutes to return with the verdict at 4:10 p. m. to Montgomery County Judge George C. Corson in the courthouse in Norristown.

Driver Faints At Wheel; 5 Hurt in Crash

Three adults and two children were injured last night when Forrest Reitnauer, 29, of 209 Walnut street, Stowe, blacked out at the wheel of his car on West High street and struck another car before crashing against the Berman Sales building on Berks street.

None of the five persons was injured seriously, although Reitnauer was admitted to Memorial hospital overnight for observation of a concussion.

The other injured were:

Mrs. Martha Brown, 51, also of 209 Walnut street, Stowe, who suffered lacerations of the left knee and abrasions of the leg.

Dennis Reitnauer, 3, Reitnauer's son, who had two teeth loosened.

Ernest Smith Jr., 27, of 311 West Race street, Stowe, who suffered lacerations of the forehead.

And, Loretta Smith, 5, whose vaccination scar was torn off.

MRS. BROWN said her son-in-law passed out and slumped behind the wheel of his car as they were driving west on West High street.

The car went off the road and struck Smith's, which was stopped on Berks street to make a right turn, and then plunged on to hit the building.

Smith's car was struck on the left rear side and spun completely around. It was hit with such force the imprint of Reitnauer's headlights were left in its side.

Insurance Men Begin Estimating Damage in Fire

Insurance adjusters yesterday began the job of detailing damage caused by Monday's row-house fire on Walnut street, and seven families continued the job of getting their damp, smoke-dirtied homes ready for occupancy.

The fire caused an estimated $8000-$10,000 damage to seven of 8 2 1/2 story homes west of Warren street. The fire was blamed on a by-passed electric fuse.

On homes flanking that of James K. Shifflette, 532 Walnut street, where the fire apparently started, residents worked on repair work in the daytime, with all windows open, but spent the night at.

Summer Gets Preview Here

Starched shirts wilted and suit coats were removed hurriedly and returned to closets yesterday as a mixture of heavy air and torrid sunshine hit Pottstown.

Those not bothered too much by the preview of Summer weather were the youngsters. All they could think about was the swimming holes they would head for as soon as the school dismissal bell rang.

The mercury raced upward from 54 degrees early in the morning to 82 in mid-afternoon, but things won't be the same today.

The weatherman says today will be fair generally and not so warm as yesterday. The high is expected to range from 72 to 78 degrees. Thursday also will be fair with little change in temperature.

'Home' for a Few Days

This is a view of the dairy barn and other buildings at Montgomery County prison farm near Eagleville, where four officers of Pottstown Owls Home association are scheduled to be sent this morning to serve out the balance of a 10-day prison term imposed Monday after they pleaded guilty to setting up and maintaining slot machines in the lodge home.

Convicted Owls Officers to Go To Prison Farm for Sentences

The four officers of Pottstown Owls Home association, sentenced Monday to 10 days in prison on slot machine charges, will be down on the farm today.

Montgomery County Prison Warden, Peter J. Reilly, disclosed yesterday that the four will be transported by truck this morning to the 108-acre prison farm near Eagleville to serve out the balance of their term.

They spent Monday night in the prison in Norristown, after undergoing the usual physical examination.

At the farm they will do outdoor work on the crops that produce much of the food for the prison in Norristown. Seventy-five acres are cultivated.

ALTHOUGH THERE are two guards on the farm, there are no walls. The prisoners sent there are on the honor system.

They may have visitors Saturday afternoon between 1 o'clock and 4 o'clock. Visitors are permitted there on the first and third Saturdays of each month.

The lodge officers will live dormitory style, eat in the farm dining room and wear dungarees and blue work shirts.

Assignment to the prison farm is much sought after by prisoners, the Warden said, and is given only to inmates convicted of relatively minor offenses who had good previous records. Approximately 60 men a year serve their sentences there.

In the 20 years the honor system has been in effect, escapes have been "very, very infrequent," Warden Reilly noted.

ONE OF the four officers, Cyrus Kulp, treasurer, was identified by William A. O'Donnell Jr., defense attorney, as a farmer.

The other three are Earl E. Wentzel, secretary, an employee in Montgomery county courthouse; David Yerger, president, who has been a painter and paper-hanger; and Martin Friedman, steward, a messenger for an express service.

The prison farm is one of the few in the State rated sufficiently high to be approved as a place for Federal prisoners to serve time.

The Owls officers were given the prison term, and $250 fines, for permitting the home association to operate the six slot machines that were seized in a raid the past month.

THE ROTARY service gold medal awards went to Sally Lou Mayer and LeRoy Hallman for their service rendered toward the welfare of the school.

Sally Elizabeth Rhoads was presented a watch as a prize for winning the W. L. Stone Memorial award in attaining the highest general scholastic proficiency during the 3 years at the High school.

The P.H.S. Athletic association awards, gold medals for service in school sports, were given to Sue LaRose and Stanley Chaplin.

Sue LaRose also received the Kiwanis prize for attaining a high average in American history and civics.

The Manufacturers' Association of Montgomery county awarded $10 to William Stearly as first prize winner and $5 to Donald Pickar as second prize winner in the vocational department for completing their work under great difficulty.

The $25-Luther-D.-Showalter Memorial award was presented to LeRoy Hallman by the Pottstown Lodge of the Elks for his proficiency in science.

Carole Merrin, for her work in the English department, was awarded the W. W. Rupert $15 prize sponsored by the Alumni association of the High school.

THE LIBRARY service award, presented to a library staff member of the Senior class, went to Joyce Eschbach.

Kathryn Waltz was awarded $5 as a prize for winning the vocal music award.

James Miller received the Vinton Baalman music award of $5.

The Woman's club of Pottstown presented Sally Lou Mayer, the class salutatorian, with $10 for attaining the second highest general average during her 3 years at the High school.

A watch was presented to Stanley Chaplin for winning the Carrol "Mush" Bechtel award for being considered the most worthy all-around athlete.

Barbara High was given the safety patrol award of $5 for her service on the safety patrol for her 3 High school years.

DAVID SHANER, who won the safety patrol poster award, was presented a certificate and a $5 cash prize.

The Bausch and Lomb Science award went to David Shaner for showing the greatest progress in science during the school years. He was presented with a plaque from.

Petition for Taproom Is Vetoed by Board

Festival in Italy Helped by Funds From Pottstown

The crossed flags of the United States and Italy will blaze forth in the skies over Fresagrandinaria, Italy, today as the little community pays homage to its spiritual protectress—the Madonna Grande—in a celebration provided by residents of the Pottstown area.

Former residents, descendants of former residents and friends of the town have contributed $180, the equivalent of 109,000 Italian lire, to provide the band and fireworks which climax the three-day observance.

Domenico Melchiorre, Monocacy, again led the drive for funds in the Pottstown area. A retired employee of the Reading company, Melchiorre has helped to provide the celebration since the end of World War II.

This year, for the first time, permission was granted to have a fireworks display in which the flags of both countries will sparkle over the town.

IT WILL be witnessed by Germano Melchiorre, 62 West Vine street, Stowe, and John Melchiorre, Bridgeport, who sailed for Italy the past May 17 to visit their aged mother, Mrs. Thelma Melchiorre, 80. They made the trip in compliance with a request from their mother to see her sons before she dies.

Both men are sons of Domenico Melchiorre. Their mother stayed in Italy when her husband came to the United States because she owned vineyards there.

The celebration of the town's patron saint began Monday with a 12-hour march to her shrine. The entire village, with the exception of the very old and very young, made the trip.

After spending a night outdoors at the shrine, they will return to the village at 9 o'clock this morning and will be met about a mile from town by a band and the villagers who had to remain behind.

The fireworks display will climax the annual celebration. Contributions ranging from 25 cents to $10 were made by 127 persons to insure the success of the observance. Their names were sent to Italy with the donation.

17 Neighbors Say Move Is Undesirable

By ROBERT E. HOYER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

The requested conversion of a North Franklin street grocery store to a restaurant and taproom was rejected last night by the zoning board of adjustment.

A petition signed by 17 objectors was submitted by Frank E. Hoffman, 404 Jefferson avenue. The board ruled it did not have the authority to grant a special exception required for the conversion.

In two other cases exceptions were granted after five-minute hearings. There was no opposition to either of the latter requests.

William H. Yohn, chairman of the board, asked David Johns, 313 North Franklin street, who requested to change the business at his home to a taproom and restaurant, "Do you think the change would be more or less desirable?"

Johns said, "In this case I can't see much difference."

AMMON H. HEYDT, 360 Jefferson avenue, one of the petitioners, said, "We have nothing personally against Mrs. Johns. We're just against the taproom."

Hoffman pointed out the reason the petition was presented and the reason residents near the 313 Franklin street site raised the objection now is because we want to be neighbors. We wanted to express our feelings against the taproom so Mr. Yohn would not begin renovations only to learn later he cannot operate because of protesting neighbors.

Yohn said, "In my mind a taproom certainly is less desirable." (Continued on Page Ten)

1500 Cast Votes In Union Race at Firestone Plant

Approximately 1500 voters cast their ballots in Firestone Local 336, United Rubber Workers (CIO) elections yesterday.

Polls were open from 8 o'clock in the morning until midnight last night. When polls at the parking lot were closed ballot boxes were impounded.

Ballots will be counted today for the election of a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, seven members to the executive board, two trustees (one for 3 years and one for 2 years) a guide, sentinel and three members to the policy committee.

Robert E. Garber, president, ran for his fourth term against Robert McCoy. McCoy pro-

Raphael Teitelbaum, 38-year-old chief metallurgist of Spicer Manufacturing division, who was operated on for removal of a brain tumor the past May 20, still is "very definitely" on the critical list.

This was reported yesterday by physicians at the University of Pennsylvania's Graduate hospital, Philadelphia, where he is a patient. The physicians added that there has been little change in his condition in the past week.

Teitelbaum lives at North Washington and North streets.

Burglars Search School, Take Only Fountain Pen

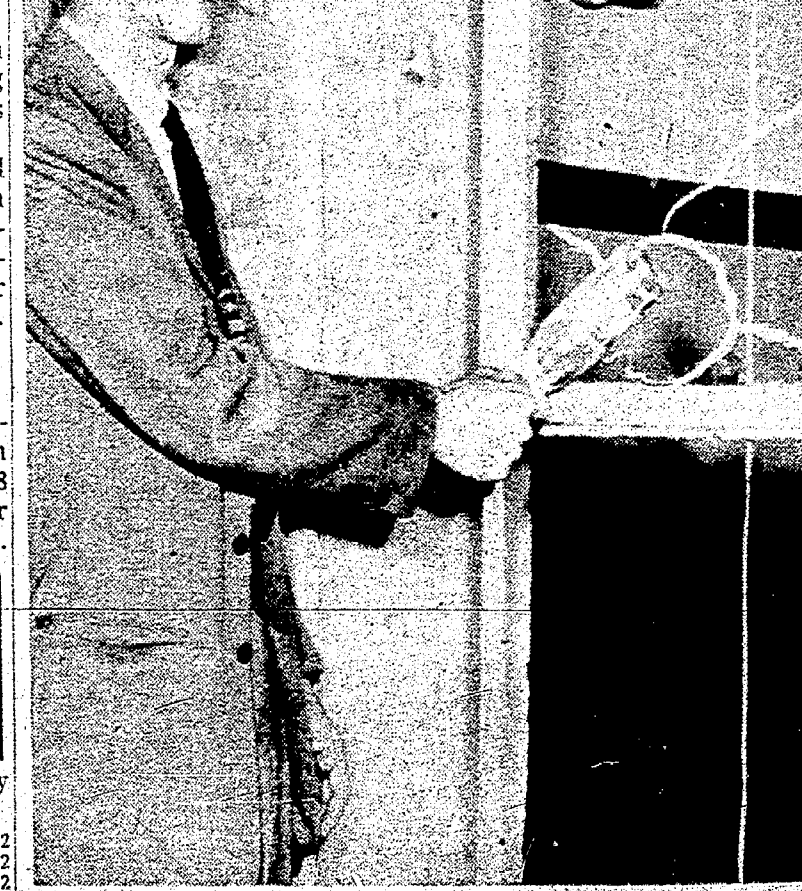

A fountain pen seemed to be the only thing missing from West Pottsgrove school yesterday, where glass in nine classroom doors was broken in a burglars' search of the school that apparently concluded with a lunch of milk and crackers.

James T. Jones, supervising principal, reported this yesterday after the contents of the ransacked rooms were checked by school teachers and Corp. Donald C. Bearcraft, Jefferson State police.

Two fountain pens were taken from a locked office desk. One was recovered in the home economics room, where milk and crackers were consumed, but ham was ignored. The ham was served at a safety patrol dinner Monday night.

Shows How It Happened

James T. Jones, supervising principal of West Pottsgrove schools, re-enacts the entry made into the school late Monday or early yesterday by would-be thieves who broke glass to enter and ransack classrooms throughout the school. Pop bottles such as the one he is wielding were found by two broken panes.

Injured Man Is Still Critical

Martin Clark, 31, of 448 High street, who underwent an emergency operation for a fractured skull at midnight Saturday in Memorial hospital was reported to be still in "critical" condition, although he has shown some improvement in the past day.

Memorial hospital reported that in cases such as Clark's a few days are needed before anything.

Grumpy Nature Is Lost By Area's 1st 1952 Baby

Five-months-old Judy Ann Kuspis, the first baby born in the Pottstown area this year, has lost the grumpy disposition with which she entered this hectic world at 12:39 a. m. Jan. 1.

Her mother, Mrs. Peter J. Kuspis, Route 100, Bucktown, said last night of her daughter:

"She's doing real fine. She weighs 17 pounds, 6 ounces and she's real good for me. She sleeps mostly till about 4 or 6 o'clock in the morning. I put her to bed about 8 o'clock. She hasn't been fussy since I brought her home."

Judy Ann was considered grumpy in the hospital immediately after her birth because she exercised her vocal cords frequently and didn't seem to care much for the attention given her.

Mrs. Kuspis, who said she is "very pleased" with the numerous gifts the child received from Pottstown area merchants as the first-born of the year, reported the baby is "making use of everything she has gotten."

AMONG the gifts were infant's clothing, eating utensils, bath equipment and many other items a new mother finds necessary in the

AWARDS ANNOUNCED AT PROMOTION EXERCISES

3 Junior High Boys Get Hill Scholarships

Custom was thrown out the window last night as three Pottstown Junior High school Ninth grade pupils received three-year scholarships to The Hill school at promotion exercises for them and 308 other members of their class in the school auditorium.

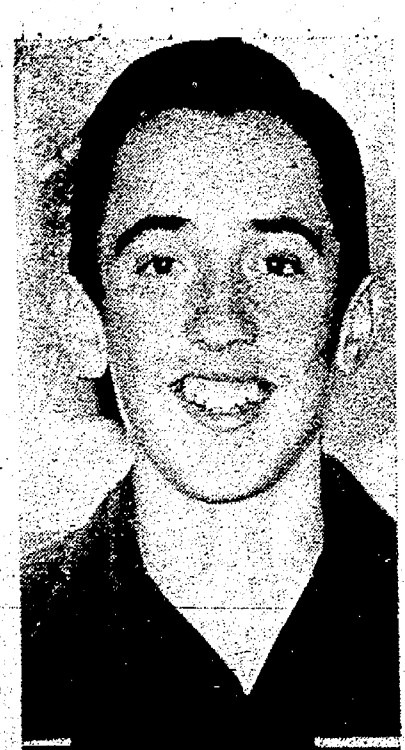

"Usually, only one scholarship is offered to Junior High pupils and another to those in the Senior High."

This year, however, no Senior High pupil offered to take the competitive examination for the scholarship, so it was offered to the Junior High boys.

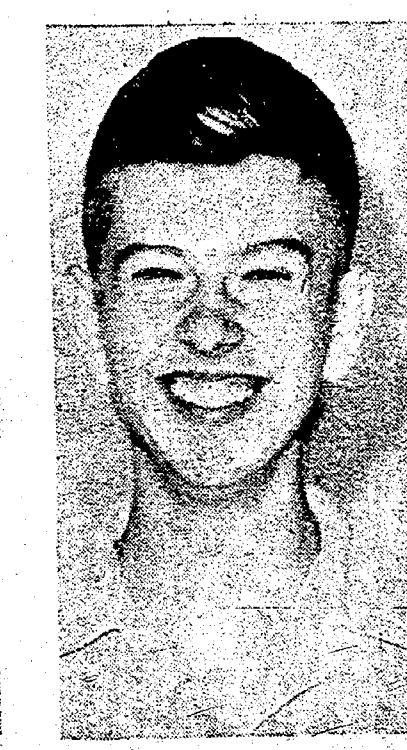

When the examination papers disclosed Edward Jaycox Jr. and John Hunnicutt, both Maple Gardens, and Carl Kowalski, 64 South Charlotte street, had attained marks very close to each other, Hill school officials decided to award a third scholarship.

THE BOYS, all 14, were among 18 pupils competing for the awards. The 18 took one written examination, then the ten boys with the highest grades in that test were recalled for another test and an interview.

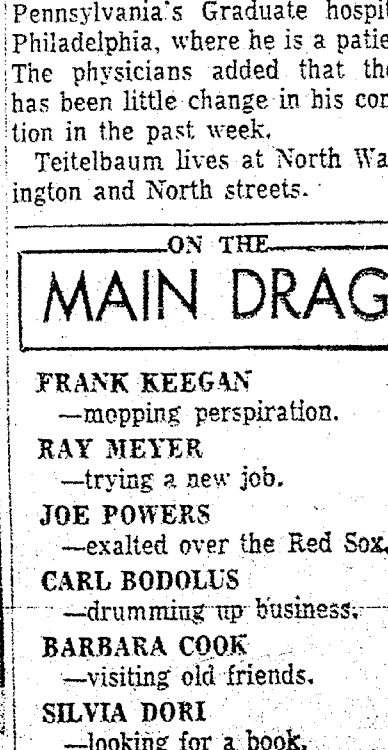

Junior High School Principal William D. Mower told the youths

Supervising Principal William D. Mower of the Pottstown Junior High school last night announced at promotion exercises for the school's 311 Ninth grade pupils in the school auditorium that Edward Jaycox Jr. and John Hunnicutt, both of Maple Gardens, and Carl Kowalski, 64 South Charlotte street (from left), had won three-year, full-tuition scholarships to The Hill school. All 14 years old, the boys and 15 other Ninth grade pupils competed in written examinations for the awards. When The Hill officials learned no pupils at the Senior High school wanted to compete for the scholarship offered each year to that school, they decided to offer a second to the Junior High school. The decision to add a third scholarship came when the results of the examinations disclosed the three boys' exam grades were very close.

Budget Approved By Warwick Board

Warwick township school board Monday night gave final approval to its $76,224 1952-53 budget and continued the current tax rate of 20 mills on real estate and the $9 per capita tax.

Increased State subsidies eliminated the necessity of raising the tax rate, the board said.

The board authorized inclusion of a French course in the 10th and 11th grade curricula next year. The current language instructor will teach the French course.

The Warwick school yesterday received a $75 second prize for the 110 tons of scrap metal its pupils contributed to the Chester county drive recently.

Driver Bound Over For County Court on Hit-Run Charges

Lloyd R. Moll, 230 North Jordan street, Allentown, who is accused of hitting an automobile on Charlotte street and failing to stop and identify himself, was continued under $500 bail for his appearance in Montgomery county court at a hearing in borough hall Monday night and forfeited $17.50 for not appearing at another scheduled hearing.

At a hearing before Justice of Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second ward, Kelley said that Emil F. Spacek, Gilbertsville, charged Moll with striking Spacek's automobile and not stopping and identifying himself.

Spacek said that on Saturday night he stopped in the line of southbound traffic at the Lee avenue intersection on Charlotte street. In front of him, he said, there were about four or five cars and a bus.

He said that his car was at a standstill when an automobile driven by Moll attempted to pass his own car and scraped his entire left side.

SPACEK SAID that he honked his horn for Moll to stop but Moll kept going. Spacek drove after Moll, he said, and caught up with him at Prospect street one block away.

Upon questioning Moll, Spacek said, Moll would not reveal who he was and it was not until after police had arrived that Spacek found out Moll's name.

Moll pleaded guilty to the charges and when Kelley asked whether Moll had anything to say, Moll replied, "I have nothing to say."

Moll was also scheduled for a hearing last night by Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus, of the Seventh ward, on a disorderly conduct on the road charge.

By failing to appear at the hearing, Moll forfeited $17.50 which he posted Saturday night pending his appearance at the hearing.

Membership Drive Planned by Synagog

Twenty-five members of the board of governors of Congregation Mercy and Truth synagog laid plans for an intensified congregation membership drive, at their monthly meeting in the synagog.

The board hopes to initiate new members of the synagog at the congregation's quarterly meetings.

Rabbi Emil Schorsch, who delivered the meeting's invocation, reported closing exercises of the synagog's Sunday and Hebrew school will be at 10:30 o'clock next Sunday morning in the school. A picnic will be staged at Sunnybrook for the pupils that afternoon.

The brief meeting, conducted by Vice President William Levin in the absence of President Joseph L. Prince, also involved discussion of insurance on synagog property.

Christ Church Drive Reported Satisfactory

The Christ Episcopal church drive to wipe out a $3360 debt on three notes is coming along satisfactorily, Melvin E. Pierce, president of the church's men's club and chairman of the committee sponsoring the drive, reported Monday night.

The final tabulation cannot be reported as yet, he said, because about 10 percent of the solicitors have not made their reports. Because of this it has been necessary to postpone a final report until June 9.

In addition to not having the returns of solicitors, Pierce said that there are many individual pledges which have not been received by the church.

Persons who made pledges may still make their donations since the drive has not yet closed.

School Budget OK'd In South Coventry

South Coventry school board members officially adopted the $32,000 budget for the 1952-53 year during a meeting Monday night.

The budget had been approved at a previous meeting and had to be advertised before its official adoption. It calls for an annual $10 per capita tax, a 29-mill tax on real estate, and a 1 percent real estate transfer tax.

Members discussed the increased enrollment problem of the consolidated school, and it was announced that 22 children will enter the first grade in September, four more than the past year. It was decided to place six more seats in the first grade classroom.

Two applications were received for the position of Third and Fourth grade teacher, which is vacant due to the recent resignation of Mrs. Thelma Pennypacker.

Action on the vacancy, however, was postponed until the next meeting on July 7. President Harry C. Symons was in charge of the meeting.

Class Day Presented Before Student Body; Seniors Write Program in Several Scenes

By BARBARA EHLY

Monday afternoon the Senior class presented its class day to the student body. The program, which was written by some members of the Senior class, was given in different scenes with each one representing an important scene in the history of our class.

Richard Yocum acted as narrator with Cleo Brown as his assistant. All members of the class took part.

The greenness of the pupils in our Freshman year was shown at the Freshman dance in the first scene. During the dance, Gene Clemens sang "I Hear a Rhapsody."

The second scene was a portrayal of our Ninth grade civics class. Gene Clemens, acting as Mr. Buckwalter, tried in vain to keep the class in order.

A SIGNIFICANT scene from our Sophomore year was the selection of our class rings. A committee of several girls and our class president, Bill Rhymer, were shown voting for their favorites.

Our next scene was typical of our homecoming at any noon time. Marilyn Berriker played the piano while "Miss" Philip Lang and Donald Sheasley gave their version of the waltz.

"The Senior Band of 1952" then favored us with several selections. Another important event of our Sophomore year was our trip to West Point. The rainy day we had, which I am sure none of us will ever forget, was the main theme of this scene. Dorothy

Pupils Take Part In 'Show and Tell' During Visiting Day

By Mrs. A. Hahn

The "Show and Tell" program, with Robert Brower as leader, was featured during the Visiting Day last Wednesday in the Third grade room taught by Mrs. Hahn.

Marybell Rosewarne showed a cambium wild flower while Marjorie Roberts displayed her red peonies and red roses. Wayne Grim showed and told about his live toad while Paul Wagner showed his snail.

Pauline Semet demonstrated how soap dissolves in water, and Barry Yocum showed his encyclopedia pictures on water forms. George Bitter showed his weigela flower and Miller Long his key collection.

Mrs. Hahn then taught a reading lesson. One reading group was helped with new words. Vocabulary enrichments were demonstrated as well as word concepts. This was followed by silent reading then oral reading.

THE OTHER reading group classified information and answered questions on material which previously had been presented. Refreshments later were served in the cafeteria to parents and children.

Mothers' Day Held By Fourth Graders

By L. Jones

Mothers Day was held recently for the mothers of the Fourth grade pupils in room seven. The pupils gave a demonstration in spelling and conducted a literary meeting with the regular officers presiding.

Afterward, tea and cookies were served to the mothers and cream sickness to the pupils and younger children present.

The mothers and younger children attending were Mrs. Knute Rondum, Mrs. Ivan Moser, Mrs. Charles Himele, Mrs. Arthur Beckley, Mrs. George Yocum, Mrs. Raymond Bortman, Mrs. Clarence Yocum, Mrs. Edward Schlingman, Mrs. Bruce Lord, Mrs. Kenneth Freese, Mrs. Miller Long, Mrs. Donald Fox, Mrs. Melvin Arion, Mrs. Lester Strunk, Mrs. John Yerger.

Also, Mrs. Michael Fritz, Kathy and Karen Beckley, Shawnee Freese, Susan Bortman, Bruce Fox and Susan Moser.

On May 22, the pupils and teacher, Mrs. Bentz, traveled by bus to Hershey park where they toured the chocolate factory and witnessed the making of chocolate products.

Route 23 Restaurant Asks Liquor License

Application for a liquor license for Seven Stars restaurant, along Route 23 in East Vincent township, has been made by its proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Swanson, Phoenixville RD 2.

This was reported yesterday by the State Liquor Control board's Philadelphia office, which said a date for a hearing has not yet been set.

The restaurant is about three-quarters of a mile east of the site of the proposed East-West Vincent township consolidated elementary school, expected to be built by September, 1953. The school boards recently completed purchase of the site.

The liquor law forbids granting licenses to establishments within 300 feet of a school or church.

Swanson has operated a restaurant there since 1947. The property is owned by Sunny Slope Dairy incorporated.

Philadelphia Zoo Visited By Second Grade Class

By MRS. STAUFFER

On Monday, May 19, the Second grade visited the Philadelphia zoo. The pupils arrived at the zoo about 10:45 a. m.

The zoo is very large and many other schools were visiting, so Mrs. Stauffer, the teacher, was very grateful to the mothers who went along to help chaperon.

The next day they discussed what they saw at the zoo. The boys and girls wrote what they liked about the zoo and had a "zoo" vocabulary given to them by their teacher.

Man Committed To Prison in Default of Bail

John Butler, Mintzer street, was committed to Chester county prison, West Chester, yesterday in default of $500 bail, on charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods.

He was taken to prison by North Coventry Police Chief Daniel W. Gudin.

Norco Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston explained that Butler was arrested on a detainer, filed the past November after the Pottstown man was accused of stealing a chest of tools, valued at $300.

Before he could be brought to Chester county for a hearing, and possible trial, however, he had to serve terms for larceny in Montgomery and Northampton county prisons.

BUTLER, ABOUT 25 years old, was accused of taking the tool chest from the car of William H. Benson, of Shamokin RD. the early morning of Nov. 14.

Benson, an employee of the Bethlehem Steel company, Pottstown, who lives at 559 King street during the work-week, was stalled by the side of Route 100, it was charged, when Butler drove by, stopped and took the tool chest.

Police recovered the tools in Butler's Philadelphia room and arrested the man shortly afterward.

Ralston said a hearing will be held for Butler as soon as witnesses and other persons interested can be brought together.

Clothing Workers Board Hears Convention Report

It was announced the local would co-operate with the Political Action committee to bring out voters during the registration period next month.

No meetings of the local will be held during the Summer months. The next regular session will be held on the Tuesday immediately following Labor Day.

than a grocery store. And because of this I don't see how we can approve the change."

The Rev. John F. Willson, pastor of Salem Evangelical United Brethren church, said, "A taproom would be less desirable than the present business. I think the establishment would be too close to the church."

Johns said he was far enough away from the church to be granted a liquor license by the State Liquor Control board.

Hoffman added, "I doubt that I would argue that point."

ROBERT R. LEINBACH, Pottstown RD 2, who appeared on behalf of Johns, said he could see no reason for objections. He asked Yohn if the board has been asked to grant a conversion "just for a restaurant, would there have been any objections?"

Yohn explained a restaurant without the taproom would be a different proposition. He commended Johns for not trying to elude the law and said he was taking the proper step in requesting the exception from the zoning board.

Yohn reminded Leinbach liquor could not be sold at any time in the 313 Franklin street site unless the board first approved.

"I have checked the borough solicitor (C. Edmund Wells) on this case," Yohn explained, "and was informed even if the State Liquor Control board granted a license, the borough still must approve."

George C. Peacock agreed with Yohn on the request and the two voted against the conversion.

Irvin W. Reigner, the third member of the board, was absent.

Petition signers were Heydl, Hoffman, Charles S. Rosenberg, 405 Jefferson avenue; Charles J. Garner, 408 Jefferson avenue; Charles Keifreider, 406 Jefferson avenue; Francis L. Ems, 344 Lincoln avenue.

Entry was made through a first-floor window. Most of the nine broken panes permitted entry to second-floor classrooms. Also searched were three administrative rooms, the nurse's office and the janitors' supply closet. Damage was estimated at $10.

Steel Leaders Call Talk on Crisis

Deadlock Break Held Possible Result of Action

PITTSBURGH, June 3 (AP)—A possible crack in the steel strike deadlock popped up tonight as steel leaders gathered for a meeting that many sources expect will lead to new contract talks.

The strike of 650,000 steel workers cut heavily into the Nation's industrial might. Thousands of railroads and coal miners were laid off. Steel production dwindled far below defense needs.

Senator Maybank (D-Sc.), a member of the Senate Banking committee, said in Washington he plans to offer immediately emergency legislation bearing on the strike.

Maybank, declining to discuss details, said his legislative proposal will be offered as an amendment to the Defense Production act.

CONGRESSIONAL sentiment is reported for some type of legislation giving President Truman power to seize private industry in an emergency. But proponents of this legislation would reserve to Congress the right to veto such seizure.

The first break in the stalemate, over negotiations came from Coatesville, Pa. The Lukens Steel company said it would sit down with the union tomorrow for contract talks involving its 4500 employees.

Executives of leading steel companies will meet tomorrow at 10 a. m. in New York to discuss strategy.

A source close to Philip Murray, president of the CIO United Steel Workers, said the meeting may lead to a call for a bargaining conference between management and labor.

This source said the union has no plans now for such a conference but indicated it would be receptive to any such invitation.

Neither management nor union made any public move to renew bargaining for a new contract in the second steel walkout of 1952.

REPORTS THAT union-industry bargaining sessions already are brewing brought a quick denial from an aide to Murray.

"Absolutely nothing to it," he said.

Murray could not be reached. He has been unreachable since he announced the strike last yesterday, within minutes after the Supreme court ordered the Government to turn back the mills to private ownership.

Murray in ordering the strike called on industry to participate in new contract negotiations.

He had his answer quickly. Vice President John A. Stephens, of U. S. Steel corporation, co-ordinator in the steel row for all involved companies, said: "We believe the steel dispute can be settled if both parties are willing to engage in free and genuine collective bargaining."

There is nothing on the record to show that a bargaining call will come from industry's meeting. It is described as a sessions to discuss events and review possible action.

TWENTY-FOUR hours after the start of the strike, some 26,000 coal miners and more than 10,000 railroad workers already were laid off. The paralysis that gripped basic steel is certain to spread still deeper within hours.

The Pennsylvania railroad, the Nation's largest, was first to announce a cutback to meet the steel crisis. The road said it is going to lay off 9000 workers starting Thursday because of "a severe loss of business due to the strike."

The Nickel Plate and New York Central railroads said they are laying off some switch crews. They wouldn't say how many men were involved.

Illinois Central laid off 3500 men.

Some 26,000 men who mine coal to keep the giant steel furnaces going were furloughed.

Ten thousand iron ore miners near Hibbing, Minn., joined the walkout in sympathy.

Some Pittsburgh barge workers, too, were laid off.

The world's greatest steel industry now has a 10 percent daily output of about 38,500 tons.

H-Hour Arrives During Maneuvers in Japan

Two amphibious tanks of the 34th Infantry regiment of the 24th division have just landed and a mortar is aimed at a potential enemy during the biggest single maneuver in the Far East since the beginning of the Korean war. Staged at Chigasaki, Japan, the war game was the first phase of a Summer training program. H-hour was at hand when this photograph of the mock attack was taken.

Taft Slightly Ahead at Half-Way Mark in South Dakota Contest

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., June 3 (AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft grabbed a slender lead over Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower tonight with nearly one-half of South Dakota's winner-take-all Republican presidential primary.

The count, from 903 of 1946 precincts in this last ballot box test, before the GOP nominating convention was:

Taft, 32,499.
Eisenhower, 31,900.

At stake were 14 convention votes and the prestige of a ballot victory on the day of Eisenhower's homecoming celebration in Abilene, Kan.

Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee tucked into his campaign cap the state's eight Democratic presidential nominating votes. Ed Downs, head of a rival uninstructed slate, conceded defeat.

IN A CONTEST with an uninstructed slate headed by state party leaders, the count from 710 precincts was: Kefauver, 9362; uninstructed, 5103.

At the quarter mark, Taft was getting 50.3 percent of the Republican vote. This included a large number of precincts from the cities and larger towns, where vote was 3 to 1 for Taft. During his campaign Taft repeatedly said he was against Universal Military Training, which Eisenhower supports. Many of the Menonites are conscientious objectors.

As was expected, Eisenhower polled heavily in urban precincts, and Taft's strength was showing in rural areas.

With three-fourths of the precincts counted in Sioux Falls, largest city in the State, the race was neck and neck.

Eisenhower polled heavily in Aberdeen, the second-largest city. Henry Schmitt, publisher of the Aberdeen American-News, reported Eisenhower got 67 percent of the vote in the city.

The general made a surprisingly strong showing in Hughes county, where the capital city of Pierre is located. It had been expected to be strong for Taft.

THE TWO candidates were virtually tied in early returns from Beadle county, expected to be strong for Taft. The Ohioan had the endorsement of the newspaper at Huron, the county seat.

Rural areas in the eastern part of the State gave Taft the nod generally three to two.

Taft threw every available resource into the primary fight here, where the 14 nominating votes are little more than a by-product of the prestige accruing to the winner.

Taft backers sought a victory which they could advertise as exploding the theory that Eisenhower is more popular with the voters than their candidate. A victory also would reinforce their claim that the Ohio senator is top GOP choice in the election-swinging Midwest.

If the tabulations gave them a victory, Eisenhower's rosters were prepared to try to translate it into a wave of popular demand for the general that might wash undecided delegates into their camp.

IOWA CITY, Ia., June 3 (AP)—The director of the University of Iowa all-girl bagpipe band, miffed at criticism by the Aberdeen, Scotland, town council, said today he was ready to take on the councilor who led the criticism in a bagpipe playing competition.

William Adamson, who trained the 65-member band, said he was "very much surprised and greatly miffed" at the remarks made at the Aberdeen town council meeting last night.

The councillors, who had been asked whether they would like to see the girls perform when they tour Scotland this Summer, angrily rejected a proposal that they pay the hotel bill and expenses for the girls in Aberdeen.

Councillor Frank Magee called the girls "a lot of comic characters who make a mockery of Scotland's national instrument and dress."

HE ASKED what Scot would want to hear traditional Scottish songs "sung be-bop fashion or jived on the pipes," and said he imagined there would be "half a dozen chorus girls with practically nothing on playing the bagpipes."

Adamson, obviously annoyed at such comments, declared:

"We have played before hundreds of American and Canadian audiences, many of whom are Scottish people, and we have never had any adverse criticism of our performance or costumes."

"Our costumes are as authentic as they can be when worn by women," Adamson declared.

"These girls definitely are not chorus girls, and we definitely play no Be-bop or jive on the pipes."

Ike Leaves Army and Rolls Up His Sleeves As Civilian; Responds to Criticism by Taft

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower took off his five stars today and rolled up his sleeves—brand new civilian sleeves—for the political battle ahead.

Taking leave of the Army—after 37 years, he couldn't bring himself to say the word "goodbye"—Eisenhower edged into the fight for the Republican presidential nomination with a reply to Senator Robert A. Taft's criticism of his air power views.

To Taft's remarks about "land generals," and his charge that the Air Force began deteriorating under Eisenhower as chief of staff, the retiring general declared that he had always been a strong advocate of air power—and that he believes air power will have a dominant role in any future war.

But he also said at a news conference:

"Anyone who finds out that the ordinary foot soldier can be finally eliminated from war, I wish he would show me how to do it."

AFTER THE news conference, held at the Pentagon, Eisenhower formally accepted retirement

CONFEREES OKAY 6.4 BILLION FOR FOREIGN NATIONS

Aid Program Is Cut By 1.4 Billion in Speedy Senate-House Action

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Senate-House conferees today approved a military and economic aid program for foreign countries totaling $6,447,730,750 for the year starting July 1.

The amount was $1,468,750,250 less than President Truman asked.

Acting with almost unprecedented speed, the Senate-House conference committee cleared the way for action this week on the bill designed to strengthen global defenses against Russian Communism.

Senator Connally (D-Tex.) chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, told reporters the conference group "split the difference" between bills previously approved by the Senate and the House.

The House had cut Truman's request to slightly over 6 billion dollars; the Senate to almost $6,700,000,000.

CONNALLY predicted quick Senate passage, possibly tomorrow, but refused to hazard a guess on whether the House would go along.

The Senate is scheduled to take up the big authorization bill first. Following passage, a bill to actually appropriate the money must also win congressional approval.

Here is a breakdown of the conference committee's action:

For Europe: $4,698,047,750 in military and economic assistance.

For Asia and the Near East: $741,430,500, both military and economic aid.

For the Far East and the Pacific areas: $886,220,000, military and economic.

For Latin America: $78,014,750, both kinds.

To assist moving European populations from overcrowded to undercrowded areas: $9,240,500.

To help pay for relief freight going to Europe: $2,587,500.

For technical assistance to underdeveloped countries in general: $15,708,750. This is in addition to other millions voted for Point Four, or technical assistance, aid which is earmarked for specific countries.

The bill also contains $16,480,000 for the United Nations International Childrens fund.

Reds Under Siege In Allied W. Berlin

BERLIN, June 3 (AP)—British troops held a grim night siege over 20 stubborn Russian tommygunners, killed by Communist police today who tonight refused to budge from as he sought to cross a border British-blockaded Radio Berlin as area to the American sector of the first efforts to make a truce failed city.

The Russians were trapped in the Communist broadcasting station, located in Allied West Berlin, when the British suddenly slapped on a barbed wire blockade at dawn.

The British acted in retaliation against Soviet seizure of several small communities belonging to Free West Berlin.

Sergei Dengin, chief of the Soviet Control commission in Berlin, rushed to see British commandant Major Gen. C. F. C. Coleman for truce talks, but the first conversations failed. A British announcement said Dengin called at his own request.

IN THE West German city of Lueneburg, border crossers said Communist police are sowing land mines in the 3-mile-wide "security belt" with which they hope to seal off East Germany from the West.

Russian reports of the Dengin-Coleman conference emphasized only the radio blockade. The Soviet-controlled ADN news agency, in a statement subsequently broadcast by Radio Berlin, said Dengin had protested and demanded that the blockade be lifted immediately.

The news agency declared the British violated a four-power agreement in sealing off the station and added:

"In informed quarters, the British action is regarded as an effort to hinder the operation of the radio network of the (East) German democratic republic."

"IT IS emphasized, however, that such measures are the work of weak and overanxious provocateurs who disregard the just striving of the German people toward unity. At the same time informed quarters are convinced that these provocations will receive their proper answer."

The commentary carried the implied threat of Communist counter-reprisal, but there was no hint of what this might be.

Spring City Council Considers Problems Of Jammed Intersection, Stagnant Canal

Spring City borough council acted to alleviate the stagnant condition on two problems at its monthly meeting Monday night.

The matter of relieving traffic congestions at the junction of Bridge street, East Bridge street and Main street was referred to Police Chief John Hanbury.

A committee was appointed to meet with Spring City Business Men's association June 9, regarding the stagnant condition of the Schuylkill canal, which rims the rear of the business section.

After hearing numerous complaints from motorists and pedestrians about the traffic tie-ups at the Bridge, East Bridge and Main street intersection, Chief Hanbury remarked the only solution would be a traffic light because there is heavy traffic periodically.

IT WAS pointed out the council had inquired about the prospects of getting a traffic light at the busy intersection, but the State ruled against it because of a dead end opposite East Bridge street. Chief Hanbury was delegated to work out a suitable solution.

Arthur Ortlip brought up the complaint of the business men about the canal, asking what is being done and what could be done.

Davenport on Fire Catches Man's Pants; He Bumps His Head

A 26-year old Royersford man was overcome by smoke, suffered a gash in the forehead and had a hole burned in his trousers when he fell asleep on a davenport yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

It all happened because the davenport caught fire from a lighted cigarette, it was reported.

The victim, James Black, 370 Myrtle street, a World War II veteran, dozed off while alone in his home and was rudely awakened when the davenport caught fire and burned a hole in his pants, scorching his leg. He jumped up, bumped his head against a front downstairs window and cut his forehead.

Then firemen of Humane and Friendship companies arrived. After aiding Black, they carried the davenport outside and doused it with chemicals. Black was taken to the office of a physician, where two stitches were taken to close the gash. The davenport was badly damaged.

Builders Here to Ask Council for Changes in Street Ordinance

Pottstown builders will ask borough council to make changes to the street ordinance vetoed by Burgess William A. Griffith.

Contractors approved Monday night, a letter, which will be submitted to Pottstown lawmakers, at a meeting of the Builder Industries Exchange, Pottstown and vicinity.

The letter will ask council to make a series of revisions in the ordinance which provides that builders construct streets, water mains and sewer lines in all future developments by the time homes are completed.

Burgess Griffith expressed his opposition to the ordinance when it was read on council floor. He said it would work a hardship on the small homeowner and the individual builder.

CONTRACTORS CONTENT the ordinance is impractical.

tations in the dispute. Fourteen hundred workers have left their jobs at the plant.

"We are living up to our part of the agreement (to permit the office and maintenance personnel to enter) on a day-to-day basis," James K. Dilliplaine, local president, said last night.

Dilliplaine said 10 to 15 men are manning the picket lines at the plant entrance around the clock. Each shift is in charge of a picket captain who was appointed at a strike strategy meeting the past April 7.

SERVING AS picket captains are William Riley, Charles Schultz, Henry Dozier, Daniel Steller, Benjamin DiPette and Paul Zelenack. Headquarters for the pickets is an old bus parked on one of the plant's parking lots.

The first 1000 workers on the first shift at the plant left the plant at 1:50 o'clock Monday afternoon after the U. S. Supreme court held government seizure of the industry was unconstitutional. They waited almost two hours after learning of the 6-3 decision until Philip Murray, Steel Worker president, issued a strike call.

It was the second time the workers have left their jobs in the past five weeks. They struck the plant for three days after Federal Judge David A. Pine decided against the seizure the past April 29.

Nine Are Registered As First Graders In West Pottsgrove

The seven boys and two girls who registered Monday for entrance into the first grade at West Pottsgrove's elementary school for the coming Fall term were thrilled at the prospect of attending school like the older children and disappointed that they would have to wait until September before they could attend classes. James T. Jones, supervising principal of West Pottsgrove schools reported.

Monday was the first day of the three-day registration period at the school.

Today is the last day of the regular registration period, but Jones said that frequently many new registrants are obtained just before the term begins.

Registration hours today will be from 9 to 3 p. m.

Mrs. Ruth Wambach, school secretary, is the sole registrar. She says that it only takes a few minutes to process the children when parents bring the birth certificates and vaccination certificates of their children.

Hallman Nominated For Kiwanis Post

Dr. James Hallman, second vice president of the Pottstown Kiwanis club, was nominated to fill the vacancy of first vice president by the board of directors during a meeting last night at the Elks Home.

The vacancy was created by the recent resignation of Francis Donnon. Nominations from the floor will be accepted at next Tuesday's meeting, after which an election will be held.

Richard K. Stevens, partner in the Philadelphia law firm of Stradley, Ronan, Stevens and Young, addressed the 56 members at last night's meeting on Federal and State inheritance taxes.

After outlining the various types of taxes, he advised his audience to disregard them in drawing up a will.

"If you write a will so as to receive the best tax advantages," he said, "you will probably end up with a document that is different from what you originally had in mind, and therefore, a less satisfactory one."

Dr. Paul Z. Hoffman, chairman of the inter-club committee, was in charge of the program. President Stanley T. Davenport Jr. presided.

Mercantillists Okay Forming Group to Fight Some Peddlers

Twenty members attending a meeting of the Mercantile bureau at the Clover Leaf restaurant Monday afternoon voted to form a committee to combat transient peddlers who sell inferior merchandise at high prices.

Members of the committee, to be appointed by Chairman A. E. Willauer, will be in charge of organizing an educational campaign to inform borough residents of the dishonest practices of door-to-door salesmen who sell over-priced goods on the installment plan.

Members also agreed to establish a ways and means committee to investigate methods of erasing the $500 deficit caused by the bicentennial ball, which was sponsored by the bureau.

definite can be said about the patient's condition.

Clark had been found in an alleyway near his home early Friday morning by his wife, Dawn, and Mrs. Katherine Razor. The two women had heard moaning in the alleyway and when they went down to investigate they found Clark lying there unconscious.

They carried him upstairs and tried to revive him. At 11 o'clock that night Mrs. Clark summoned Dr. Robert H. Linn, Pottstown physician.

DR. LINN treated Clark for shock. When his condition did not improve by Saturday evening he ordered Clark removed to the hospital.

Clark was operated on by a Philadelphia specialist at midnight Saturday.

Sgt. Harold E. Hahn, who investigated the case, said that it could not be determined definitely how Clark had received his injury but that Dr. Linn reported to him that it appeared Clark had not been struck a blow to the head.

Dr. Linn said that Clark had an impression in the area of the injury but no bump or abra-sion, as is common when someone is struck a hard blow.

Hahn's investigation disclosed that Clark had spent the hours between 9 p. m. Thursday and 1:30 a. m. Friday at a downtown cafe.

John Zimba, bartender, at the Pottstown cafe, said he saw Clark lying in the alleyway at 2:15 a. m. Friday and that he tried to arouse Clark but could not. Zimba said that he had an appointment in Reading and had to leave Clark there.

Slowe Health Board Final Group of 39 Eighth Grade Pupils Sends Sewer Notices Are Graduated at Gilbertsville Exercises

Stowe's board of health Monday night authorized final notices to be sent six homeowners directing them to connect with the trunk line running through the community. The owners, whose properties are located on different streets, were given 20 to 30 days to install sewer lines from their homes to the trunk line. Health Officer Daniel Wien said. Residents of the 800 block of Howard street and about a half-mile section of Grosstown road have not been sent any notices because the trunk line has not been installed there. Wien informed the board, which met in his home, he had notified the State Department of Health a well dug by a homeowner required its inspection. The inspection is a routine matter.

The final 39 eighth grade graduates of the Gilbertsville and Congo schools, Douglass township, Montgomery county, participated in commencement exercises at the Gilbertsville chapel last night. Beginning next term, in accordance with a recent ruling of the school board, Seventh and Eighth grade pupils at the two schools will go to Boyertown Junior High school, where the 39 graduates will attend Ninth grade in September. The Rev. John L. Smoker, pastor of Baltzell Evangelical United Brethren church, was the principal commencement speaker. "To find your place in the world," he told the graduates, "you must discover certain inherent gifts, you must enjoy your work, and you must have a definite motive for what you are doing."

Wagon Rolls in Front Of Truck; Boy Hurt

A seven-year-old Boyertown youth was hurled ten feet and suffered lacerations of the face and scalp, and numerous bruises of the body, about 7:05 o'clock last night when his express wagon rolled in front of a light panel truck on Water street.

The victim, Purnell Renninger Jr., Water street, was taken to Reading hospital in the Boyertown Lions Community ambulance, manned by Earl Keim and Henry Miller. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Purnell Renninger, accompanied the boy in the ambulance. The youth was detained at the hospital for observation and further treatment.

Boyertown Police Chief Henry E. Groff, who investigated, said the boy was playing with the wagon and a grass slope in front of his home as Samuel Weiss, about 60, Boyertown RD 2, approached the Renninger home from the west on Water street in the truck. The wagon rolled down the slope into the street and almost was on the other side of the truck when struck. Weiss, who said the truck was traveling at about 35 miles-per-hour, said he attempted to brake the vehicle when he saw front of a light panel truck on Water street.

THE LEFT side of the truck hit the boy. It's left headlight was bent, but the reflector was undamaged. The wagon was damaged considerably.

The youth was treated first by Dr. John H. Waring, who lives near the scene of the mishap, at 325 East Philadelphia avenue. He and the ambulance were summoned by a neighbor of the Renningers.

Chief Groff said the distance from the point of impact, identified by blood on the street, and the spot at which the truck stopped was 55 feet.

The youngster's father, who was in an Army uniform when the boy was taken to the hospital, had been preparing to attend a weekly meeting of an Army reserve unit in Pottstown.

Picture of a Pair who just waked up

HERE in the driveway is a Buick. It has just arrived. It belongs to this proud young couple. They've just "arrived" too.

They've arrived at a discovery—the discovery that owning a Buick instead of a "low-priced car" isn't so much a matter of money.

It's a matter of knowing the facts of life. Buick prices are closer to the prices of smaller, less powerful, less distinguished cars than most people think.

Why don't you check into this?

You'll find you could pay $300 to $400 more — and still not match the horsepower of this nimble beauty.

You could pay hundreds of dollars more—and still not get any more interior room, or richer fabrics.

But that's only part of the story.

The big thing about any car is the way it goes.

So you ought to find out how this car rides the road—the freedom from bobble and sway that cost a million real dollars to develop.

You ought to sample the way Dynaflo Drive* feeds the power — with a steady swoop and unbroken smoothness in city traffic, on hills, or out on the open road.

And you ought to know how it feels to touch off that Fireball 8 Engine. With all its might, this high-compression valve-in-head gets a lot of miles from a gallon of gas.

We'll tell you this—because a lot of folks have told us this: No matter what car you're driving now—no matter what cars you've looked at—they'll never seem the same after you try this one.

Just give us a chance to prove it — and you'll have a lot of fun.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

BOSTON, June 3 (AP)—Smooth-throwing Mike Garcia drew his chief offensive support from Luke Easter while returning the Cleveland Indians to the American League's top place tonight with a 6-0 shutout over Boston's revamped Red Sox. Easter drove in half of the Indians' tallies with his eighth homer and a single as they snapped a three-game losing streak.

Tigers, Bosox Swing 9-Man Deal

DETROIT, June 3 (AP)—The pennant-contending Boston Red Sox and the last place Detroit Tigers swapped nine players today in a "million dollar" deal that jolted the baseball world.

The trade, one of the biggest in the American League in years, shipped all-star third baseman George Kell and outfielder Hoot Evers to the Red Sox. And the Tigers got slugger first baseman Walt Drogo, outfielder Don Lenhardt and infielder Johnny Pesky. They were the big names.

The Red Sox also obtained Johnny Ligon, the Tigers' regular shortstop, and relief pitcher Dizzy Trout. Boston recalled first baseman Dick Gernert from Louisville to fill the first base gap.

In addition, the Tigers acquired third baseman Fred Hatfield and pitcher Bill Wright. Biggest surprise was Kell's departure. But general manager Charlie Gehringer of the Tigers said, "he hadn't been helping us enough while we were in the cellar. So we gave him up to get some long ball punch in Drogo and Lenhardt."

Kell, a $42,000 salaried player, wasn't the American League in batting in 1949, was second in 1950 guys we gave up. In Drogo and third in 1951. Kell, on the Lenhardt we got some run-making Boughter gave up singles to Bill Conway and Ed Dobry over the seven-inning route, struck out three and walked only two. His shutout was spoiled in the fourth when Dobry singled home Jim Petrucci, who had boarded on an error.

Trinity landed on starter Petrucci for three runs in the fourth inning on two hits and a squeeze play.

Norm Held boarded on a theft and moved around on a theft and a wild pitch. He was squeezed home by Frantz, who pulled in safely as the play was made to the plate. Boughter singled and Doug Edmunds repeated for another pair of tallies.

In the seventh Boughter struck a two-run single to left after Held and Lloyd Hughes had tapped safeties.

Tonight's game pits Grace and Emmanuel Lutheran at 6 o'clock at Memorial Park.

Yanks Win in 13th

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—Pinch-hitter Johnny Sain singled on a long drive to the left field corner with the bases loaded and two out in the bottom of the 13th inning tonight to drive in Mickey Mantle and give the New York Yankees a 4-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Bob Hogue, third Yankee pitcher, was credited with the victory while Billy Pierce, who went the distance for the Sox, was charged with the loss.

"SHOCKED" KELL LATE IN JOINING RED SOX

PHILADELPHIA, June 3 (AP)—George Kell said tonight he was "shocked" to learn he had been traded by the Detroit Tigers to the Boston Red Sox.

Kell was one of four Detroit players shifted to Boston in the deal involving a straight trade for five Red Sox players. The trade was announced today.

In addition to third baseman Kell, the Detroit trades were shortstop Johnny Ligon, outfielder Hoot Evers and pitcher Dizzy Trout. Boston sent the Tigers' first baseman Walt Drogo, outfielder Don Lenhardt, infielder Johnny Pesky, third baseman Fred Hatfield and pitcher Bill Wright.

"I was indeed shocked to learn of my being traded off to Boston," said Kell tonight as he watched the Philadelphia Athletics-Detroit game from the Tigers bench at Shibe Park.

Kell said he failed to go to Boston on the same plane this afternoon with the other three traded Detroit players because he did not learn of the shift until too late. Kell had been expected to play in the Red Sox' game with the Cleveland Indians.

"I was visiting my friends in Germantown (a Philadelphia suburb)," he said, "with my wife and two children. We lived with those folks when I played here for the Athletics."

"They (the Tigers) contacted my brother, Everett (the A's second baseman), but it wasn't until after 4 p. m. that we returned to his house. I got in touch with Red Rolfe (Tiger manager) and told him of the circumstances. He immediately phoned Joe Cronin in Boston."

Kell said he planned to leave for Boston by train tonight, arriving early tomorrow morning.

"I'm sorry to leave Detroit," said Kell. "Everyone has been fine to me. But that's baseball and I can't say I won't welcome hitting in Fenway Park with that short left field wall as a target."

A's Trim Tigers, 3-1; Phils, Roberts Beaten

PHILADELPHIA, June 3 (AP)—Homers by Hank Majeski and Al Clark were the payoff blows tonight as the Philadelphia Athletics took a 3 to 1 decision over the Detroit Tigers. The victory stretched the A's victory streak to four.

Virgil Trucks, who has completed only one of nine starting jobs, was the victim of Philadelphia's power. He gave way to veteran Freddy Hutchinson after seven innings of work.

Billy Hitchcock's triple after a walk to Majeski with two out in Philadelphia's second game the winners a 1-0 advantage.

CHICAGO, June 3 (AP)—The New York Giants today batted clear around in successive six-run innings and clubbed 17 hits today to crunch the Chicago Cubs 17-4 and end a three-game losing streak.

The Giants, who had lost five of their previous six games, included a two-run homer by Wes Westrum, three triples and three doubles in their massacre of four Cub tossers. The rampant New Yorkers also enjoyed six walks and had three hit batsmen.

Shantz' ERA 3d Best In American Circuit

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—When it comes to allowing earned runs, Albie Reynolds of the New York Yankees and Sal Maglie of the New York Giants have no objections to being called the stingiest pitchers in the major leagues.

The dependable right-handers have compiled the lowest earned run averages in their leagues, according to statistics released today by the Associated Press. Figures include games of Monday, June 2.

Reynolds has yielded only 12 earned runs in 80 innings to top the American League in earned run effectiveness with an average of 1.35. Maglie, the National League leader, boasts an ERA mark of 1.47, having given up 14 runs in 86 innings.

Runner-up to Reynolds in the American League ratings is Mike Garcia of the Cleveland Indians with an earned run average of 1.48. Garcia, who was the early season leader, has surrendered 13 earned tallies in 79 innings.

Southpaw Bobby Shantz of Philadelphia, possessing an 8-1 won-lost state, ranks third with an ERA of 1.52, followed by veteran Joe Dobson of Chicago at 1.70. The White Sox hurler has tossed three shutouts to head the league in this department.

Army veteran Curt Simmons, who returned to the Philadelphia Phils late in April, is very much in contention for earned run honors in the National League. The young southpaw has given up only eight earned runs in 46 innings for a 1.59 mark.

Chicago's Bob Rush, with three straight shutouts under his belt, is third in the ERA ratings at 1.75, followed by veteran southpaw Ken Raffensberger of Cincinnati with a 1.85 average and Robin Roberts of Philadelphia in fifth place at 2.09.

JACOBS WINS

Mike Hegedus to rescue Falcon starter Mit Leck.

Hegedus got the side out, but his number was coming up.

In the fourth, with one gone, Heintz stopped a pitch with his hand and Jack Dellopaine sliced a double to left to put two aboard. Bill Binczak skied to left, but Ed Yeaw rified a single to center to fetch both runners.

Back to back singles by Strom and Pennypacker, and an error by Dave Suchoza got the final Jaeco marker in the fifth. A good throw, leftfielder Gene Orandosh to catcher Jack Reinsnyder, nailed Pennypacker at the plate and cut off further damage.

Braves Win, 3-2

ST. LOUIS, June 3 (AP)—Right-hander Jim Wilson hurled the Boston Braves to a 3-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals tonight after watching his first pitch smacked for a single and then pitching hitless ball until the eighth inning when he gave up the only other hit he allowed and both Card runs.

Paige Delivers

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP)—Satchel Paige's third straight single with two out in the 17th inning scored Joe Demaestri from second base with the run that lifted the St. Louis Browns to a 3-2 victory over Washington tonight. It was Paige's fifth win in relief.

Pitching brilliantly in tight situations, Paige twice survived Washington rallies when the Senators loaded the bases with one out in the 13th and 14th innings.

and Clemens, Kricky is expected to give the Amoles an equally fine hill corps this year.

Rhoads mentioned last night that Len Almond, a leftside curve server from West Pottsgrove, might join the ranks. That should do it.

Marshall Sold

CINCINNATI, June 3 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds announced tonight the purchase of hard-hitting outfielder Willard Marshall from the Boston Braves for an undisclosed amount of cash.

THE TIGER

The TIGER lineup will now include Joe Ginsberg, C. Drogo 1b, Jerry Priddy 2b, Pesky 3b, Hatfield 3b, Lenhardt 4b, Johnny Groth 5b, and Vic Wertz 6b. Wertz will combine with Lenhardt and Drogo as long ball hitters.

"Bill Wright will make us a better starting pitcher than Trout and a good reliever," said Gehringer.

Rolfe said only time would tell how good a deal it was.

"I never liked the balance on this club," said Rolfe, whose club had figured to contend for a first division berth.

"I have had slow, right hand hitters who are double play bait. Actually most of the time I had seven men who were potential double play men. Now I have two left-handers — Hatfield and Pesky — for my infield."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

OUTSIDE a downtown bar-and-grill, a panhandler braced the proprietor for a dollar. "Money I can't afford," responded the proprietor, "but if you're hungry, you can come inside when the evening rush is over and I'll give you a bite to eat." "Nah," sneered the panhandler. "Who can afford your Park Avenue prices?"

It was Henry L. Menoken who pointed out. "Not being able to understand women wouldn't be so disastrous if only they didn't understand men!"

Jokes contributed by my ten-year-old son Christopher (and high time he was getting into the act!):

Q. What's the biggest bus in Ohio? A. Columbus.
Q. If wolves kill sheep, what do cats kill? A. Mountains.
Q. Which animal is the most generous? A. A skunk. He'd give anybody his last scent.
(Yes, I know! I've printed worse!)

Consider Finances, Family When Planning A Wedding

By permission of Modern Brides, utility man, he arranges the bachelorette party, the two of you should for dinner, acts as right-hand man come out of the moonbeams long to the bride's mother as well as enough to decide on the type of the bridegroom, indoctrinates wedding which suits you and the bridegroom, helps bride life you're going to live. Take groom pack and dress, takes care into consideration your social and the bridegroom, handles the fee for the financial status, the size of your clergyman, and sees to it that the respective families, the number of the bridegroom is delivered to the of relatives and guests to be in church one-half hour before the vied the amount of time, and your ceremony. His last duty, before own personal wishes. he collapses, is to lead the pair to their car for the honeymoon send-off.

But whatever type of affair, approach it with forethought. The performance perfect calls for more than hearts and flowers, so better go into a family huddle to calculate the financial responsibilities on the bride's side of the altar.

THESE OBLIGATIONS include the bride's trousseau, the wedding ensemble, invitations—and announcements, all floral decorations for the ceremony and the reception, the bridesmaids' bouquets, (although the bridegroom may pay for the flowers if he wishes) gifts to the bridal attendants.

All church expenses, with the exception of the clergyman's fee, are paid by the bride's family, including rental for the church, fees for musicians, tips for church sexton.

The bridal dinner is usually given by the bride's family, and theirs is the responsibilities of housing out-of-town attendants and guests within the family, transportation of the wedding party and both families to the church and the reception, and all wedding reception expenses.

LIKE LADIES—in waiting, the bride's attendants furnish the colorful background for a wedding and should be as pretty as a picture. It is customary that they buy their own bridal array after the bride has made her selections. The bride chooses her maid of honor and bridesmaids among her closest friends, but if the bridegroom has sisters or favorite cousins, they are often asked to participate in the wedding.

Whether the bridesmaids are married or not makes no difference. The maid or matron of honor is the only member of the bride's party who has duties to perform at ceremony time. She adjusts the bride's veil and train, and she holds her bouquet during the ceremony and lifts back her veil.

Also, she may hold the bridegroom's rings, if it's to be a double ring service. She is one of two witnesses to sign the marriage certificate.

THE BEST MAN may be the bridegroom's eldest brother, father, uncle, cousin or a close friend. He should be an able-to-cope-with-it-all type. As general

Pretty Print

While the print frock isn't so much in the fashion picture as it used to be, the current version is of exceedingly fine styling, striking of line, if somewhat subdued as to print. One of New York's favorite designers, who has a deft way with prints, does this one in "smoke crystal" and white printed silk surah. Designed for afternoon or cocktails, the dress has a bodice with close-gathered fullness above the moulded, loop-buttoned midriff. The very new looking skirt is stitch pleated to join a tucked hem band, crisply flared.

Those who would treat politics and morality apart will never understand the one or the other—John Viscount Morley.

Soft Snap for Next President

ONE knows who the next President will be. But whatever his name and party label, he is in for a rugged time.

United States News & World Report recently dealt with what the new President will be in a brief but comprehensive feature article.

As it observed, the job offers many unique tests and prerogatives.

The Chief Executive lives in one of the most magnificent homes on earth. Legions of assistants and servants are at his beck and call. He is treated with the utmost deference everywhere.

And yet a wish goes unfulfilled. He is paid a large salary and receives a $50,000-a-year free expense fund in addition.

But all these material benefits lose much of their lustre in the light of the enormous problems with which the President must deal and of the fateful decisions he, and he alone, must make.

The U. S. News article is called "Troubles Ahead For Next President." Here, in capsule form, is the gist of what the magazine anticipates for him:

DEBT. Soon the national debt will touch $275,000,000,000 legal ceiling.

The President will have to choose between asking Congress to raise that ceiling or cut spending.

Either way, he will make political enemies. WAR. It seems certain that the Korean war will still be going when he takes office, though it may be relatively passive.

This is a stalemated, totally unpopular war. What will he advocate to end it?

BUSINESS. Many economists think that the business is running down. Next year, it is cast, there will be a substantial decline in industrial expansion.

There will probably be a drop in profits—that will bring a drop in tax collections, and the budget problem still more difficult. The ranks of the unemployed will be added.

All this may happen very soon after the President moves into the White House. AGRICULTURE. Some farm commodities are in a surplus state now. Other surpluses are anticipated.

So, as U. S. News put it, "The next President is to be caught between the pressure of people interested in cheaper food and farm population insisting that government protect farm prices against substantial decline."

BUREAUCRACY. The President is the boss of 6,200,000 people—2,500,000 civilians and 3,700,000 military. This huge roll is one of the primary causes of our size Federal budgets.

And here again the next President must make a difficult decision.

In the view of U. S. News, "If he does cut the payroll and the functions of the government bureaucracy, his financial liabilities will grow. If he does not cut the payroll, some people will be out of jobs, raising political fuss, and if he cuts functions some part of the region will lose a good thing and will raise a political fuss."

These aren't all of the problems the be-guiled next President will face—not by a long shot. Great problems we can't even anticipate today may also be his.

But they serve to indicate the enormous unavoidable burdens that are part and parcel of what is accurately described as the toughest job in the world.

Optive Audiences

PERSONALLY, WE are irritated by the very thought of being compelled, while riding in a car or streetcar, to listen to scratchy radio ads and the blating of dollar-down commercials. Nevertheless, we think the U. S. Supreme Court ruled correctly in refusing to void such broadcasts.

Both parties to this unique case sought to put themselves in the Bill of Rights. Embellished riders of the Washington (D.C.) tram system said their constitutional right to privacy had been invaded. The company said it has a right to equip its busses as it fits.

The public is not helpless in this matter. A substantial number of them are sufficiently annoyed, a post card to the advertiser to that effect would quickly deprive the radio of sponsors—and the transit company of incentive to continue.

'Good Family' Plea Can't Excuse Vandalism

Families Aren't So Good

To the Editor: The incident concerning those two 20-year-old "men" who tore down an American flag has riled me to the point where I am writing my first letter to the editor.

The unpatriotic side of this incident is bad enough.

But what really rankles is the way these "men" were let go with nothing more than a slap on the wrist, without even made to go through a hearing, just because they were the sons of "good families."

If their families were so good, why did they bring up these "men" in such a way that they could pull such an unpatriotic, cowardly, petty stunt as this?

Boys from families of the upper middle class have less excuse than anyone else for delinquency.

It's the boys from the poor homes that should be given consideration when they get into trouble, yet in this town it's just the opposite—it's the boys from the so-called "good families" who are let

WASHINGTON

Truman's Campaign Pose Apparent In Interviews

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, June 3 — Although Truman regularly promises to set out on another "whistle stop" campaign for the Democratic presidential nominee in early fall, the important political fact is that he has been delivering the 1948 kind of sharp, aggressive and provocative attacks on his combined opposition in every recent public address, press interview and private conference.

It is extremely significant, in the opinion of the politicians, that at this critical moment in domestic and world affairs, Truman never misses a chance to create social, economic and political dissension.

In the last six weeks he has assailed in back-platform language the steel companies and corporations in general, the oil lobby, the power interests, the doctors, Capitol Hill economists, the Byrd-Byrnes faction of the party, "reactionary Republicans."

Truman's strategy impresses many members of his own official family as extremely unwise from the national and international standpoint. Such non-politically minded Cabinet members as Sawyer of Commerce, Lovett of National Defense and even Acheson feel that this is no time to permit partisanship to give the world the impression of a divided people.

But the bread-and-butter politicians, like Chapman, Brannan, Tobin and McGraney, are engineers on the "whistle stop" train. From their talks with Truman, they know and sympathize with his partisan performance. It's purpose is to insure a Democratic victory in November at all costs.

VULNERABLE: Truman believes that his administration and party will be most vulnerable on domestic issues—high taxes and prices, corruption, centralization, regimentation etc. He feels that his foreign program will survive attack, whether the Republican nominee be Taft or Eisenhower.

In fact, he does not expect Eisenhower, should he head the opposition to concentrate on this issue. Most of the general's backers on and off Capitol Hill have usually supported the Truman-Acheson policies in Europe and Korea.

In view of that conclusion, Truman's plan for a sixth successive Democratic triumph in a national election is plain even to a political kindergartner.

Like his 1948 effort, the White House "whistle stop" oratory is designed to depict the GOP as the "party of privilege," and the Democrats as the only guardians of the rights and liberties of the masses—labor, the farmers and the consumers.

Truman himself has proclaimed that he alone represents the 155,000,000 people of the nation, although there are many millions who might ask to be excluded from this presidential circle.

'PRISONER': Should Eisenhower be the Republican candidate, and should he run on the principles of the more progressive Dewey-Duff-Lodge faction, the Truman retort to this kind of campaign has already been recorded on the White House propaganda books. It will be:

"Sure, Ike means well but he is the prisoner of his party."

Ironically in the days when he trusted Stalin Truman made almost the same remark about "Uncle Joe," referring to the dictator as "the prisoner of the Kremlin."

The most spectacular and pretentious exhibition of this sort of game was the recent Washington conference of public power advocates, which the president addressed. The audience consisted of representatives of the Rural Electrification Administration, farm co-ops, consumers' groups etc. It was a politically packed house.

Secretaries Chapman and Brannan stage-managed the affair. Labor Secretary Tobin was enlisted in the movement, but he had little luck in getting his gang to Washington.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CHARLOTTE W., 39, is a conscientious wife and mother.

"Dr. Crane, I have been married for 18 years," she said, "but I still don't know how to get along with my husband. He will stay out late at night, or never come home at all. If I so much as ask him where he has been, he may curse me in front of the children, or beat me.

"Last week, for example, he had been drinking and arrived home about midnight. Then he started to punch me in the face.

"He blackened both my eyes and knocked three of my front teeth out. I've tried to be a good wife but I don't seem to say or do the right things."

IT TAKES TWO women to make a good husband. The first one is his mother.

If she falls down on her job, even an angel from heaven might then fail to get along harmoniously with such a man.

A mother's job consists of training her children, both sons and daughters, so they will make excellent marriage prospects.

If she lets a boy browbeat his sister or herself into according to his selfish wishes, she is training her son for a later divorce.

If she fails to teach him how to earn as well as spend money wisely, she is guilty of breaking up his marriage later in life.

If she winks at his moral lapses and is afraid to punish him lest he might love his father more than herself, she is not only a coward, but is an accessory to her son's later infidelity after marriage.

Many mothers preen their feathers when their sons flatter them by saying, "Mother is my best sweetheart!"

Such a statement indicates that your son has not been properly reared. No mother should ever be called her adult son's sweetheart.

Every good mother is supposed to housebreak her son for happy marriage to a girl of his own age. Our high divorce rate is a current American tragedy. And the mothers of America are partly to blame, for divorces don't start after young couples have been married.

They begin 20 or 25 years earlier when those same persons are infants. A coddled child or a spoiled brat is obviously going to fatten our divorce rate.

Mothers are the more influential parents of children, so they deserve the greater censure when their children fail to succeed in marriage.

But I freely concede that fathers also deserve criticism for preparing their children as likely candidates for later divorce.

Charlotte's husband didn't suddenly start beating his wife. I learned that he beat his sisters in childhood, too.

can flag, and then drop the whole case gripes me no end.

It just goes to show what a little influence can do. If that incident was done by me or some other person. I would have been thrown in jail with a fine slapped on top.

Could it be that Patrolmen Leuthold didn't know the identity of the youths, or otherwise would have thought twice before arresting the sons of the town's two prominent citizens?

The Mercury states that "the youths could have been charged with violations of Sections 210 and 211 of the Act of June 24, 1939, etc." then why weren't they?

This incident is read in The Mercury by many a serviceman stationed all over the world and to see the flag which they are so bravely and gallantly fighting for, being torn down and insulted. Most gripe them also.

I'm sure this feeling is felt by many others here in our home town and vicinity.
